

STAFF CONDUCT AND DUTY TO REPORT

Conduct

Robert Frost Public Charter School staff members are expected to exemplify the modeling of grace and courtesy that we teach our students, establishing the highest standards of respect, tolerance, and understanding for all regardless of race, color, creed, or persuasion.

In addition, Robert Frost Public Charter School staff members are required to abide by the New Hampshire Code of Conduct for New Hampshire Educators.

The Code of Conduct for New Hampshire Educators was created and adopted by the State Board of Education in November of 2018. The Code of Conduct contains the following five Principles:

- Principle I – Responsibility to the Education Profession and Educational Professionals
- Principle II – Responsibility to Students
- Principle III – Responsibility to the School Community
- Principle IV – Responsible and Ethical Use of Technology
- Principle V – Duty to Report

Duty to Report

If any staff member of the Robert Frost Public Charter School suspects that another staff member has violated the code of conduct, they should report to the Head of School or the Chair of the Board of Trustees.
